MEMO

3/15/02

To: Dick Dobell

From: Ken Hutchings Sr.

Subject: Fulton/Highpoint Chevrolet

---

This is to confirm the points agreed to at our meeting on March 14th:

1. Effective 4/01/02 Larry Turell is out. You will forward John a new agreement to be effective 4/01/02 with me named as the Broker/Consultant in place of Larry Turell. The agreement will state that my compensation regarding the self-funded health care plan will be the 15% stop-loss commission that Turell was receiving. It will be paid to me beginning with the April stop-loss premium. I will receive no "add on" administration fees such as Turell was receiving.
2. Express Scripts enrollments and terminations will be handled by SIEBA
3. The Group Life and AD&D premium payment will be handled by SIEBA. For those employees enrolling for both life & health coverage the standard SIEBA enrollment form will suffice as notification to add the employee to the life coverage. Notification that the employee is terminated for health will also prompt SIEBA to delete the employee from the life premium statement.

Lori will notify SIEBA when they have an employee that should be added to the life bill that is not to be covered for health. She will do the same for employees in this category that terminate.

4. SIEBA and Ken Hutchings will develop a new SPD (plan booklet). (Dick to e-mail me a copy or mail hard copy) Once SIEBA and I rework the booklet we will review it with John and Lori for final approval.

Thanks,

Ken
